

Chinese Bible Church of Maryland
Rockville Mandarin (RM) Congregation Minister/Pastor
Ministry Description

Principal Function

The Rockville Mandarin (RM) congregation minister/pastor is a position called to provide leadership and to minister to the members of the RM congregation with a focus on the younger generation (which includes young singles, young families, and college students). He will be involved in developing strategy and providing leadership and pastoral care to the flock that is entrusted to him, in accordance with the mission and goals of the church. He will be under the supervision of the RM lead pastor (LP), and in the absence of the RM LP, he will be under the supervision of the senior pastor.

Responsibilities

1. Preach in Sunday worship service as assigned by the Senior Pastor or RM Lead Pastor.
2. Teach, model, and promote active prayer life, active study of the Scriptures, active life of service to others and other spiritual disciplines.
3. Provide strategic leadership with the RM congregation pastor, elders and deacons to effectively carry out a ministry plan that will grow the younger generation of the Rockville Mandarin congregation in quality and quantity.
4. Lead, train, and mobilize younger generation believers to become mature and healthy disciples of Jesus, faithfully serving God and effectively reaching out to other young people.
5. Provide pastoral counseling and visitations.
6. Provide oversight and support to cell groups and fellowship groups for the younger generation, regularly addressing key topics that are especially important to the younger generation.
7. Work with the elders and other Mandarin congregation ministers/pastors to foster better intergenerational cooperation and caring within the congregation.
8. Perform other ministries as deemed necessary or assigned by the supervisor.

Qualifications

1. M.Div or higher theological education.

2. A clear calling and ministry experience in a Mandarin speaking congregation in North America.
3. Proven preaching ability to deliver God's words succinctly and correctly with life impacting applications.
4. Strong Biblical teaching skills and ability to teach in different settings
5. Visionary, creative, and effective in reaching Mandarin speaking students, young professionals and young families, preferably with extensive experience in serving the younger generation.
6. Humble servant attitude, a good team worker, and able to work well and fully support a multi-cultural church with multiple congregations.
7. Strong leadership, administrative, communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills.
8. Have a healthy marriage/family life (if married and have children) and above reproach in Christian life and conduct
9. Languages: fluent in Mandarin, proficient in English.
10. Adheres to all the tenets of the CBCM statement of faith and bylaws.